What efforts the College should take to involve alumni in it's further growth?

45 responses

Yes

Get together in every year

College need to take some efforts on teaching.

Arrange get together in every year

To update about regular updates about alumni student

College Can Start JMFC classes so the Maximum lawyer can take benefeit in home without going pune

College should arrange court visits,should add PPT presentation to expand confidence should provide Lawyers session once in a every month.

Teaching pratical like all pursis draft

Co-curricular activities should be arranged for the development and growth of the student for law collage some cell should be made which will help the student to learn practical knowledge.the law collage life is quite boring therefore to develop interest of students collage must start some other activities etc.and opportunities of internship and placement will develop the student interest

Get together

Nil

Better communication with students

Guest lecture

Yes

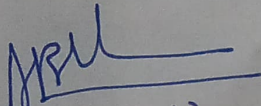

There are several opportunities to engage with alumni through social media

Providing information about this

Nss camp

To make people together n then all people will involve in alumni

College took alumni guest lectures to give an experience to students.

Provide Best placement

Provide more opportunities to improve legal skills

Extra curricular activities to improve student's skills.

No efforts are needed all alumni are very good

There are no extracurricular activities in the college

This college is far away to be called as co-educational as no girl or boy can participate together in the college competition or any other competition

College will be taken extracurricular which will improve students skills and personality .

High level development

Provide more placement and internship

To provide scholarship and other educational sources

Stricness

Yes better teaching, strict rule and regulations and some extra activities in state level

On campus events and supporting recent graduate as they start their careers and also to other students ..

They give us information about link

No

nothing

Volunteering on committees and boards

More opportunities and higher placements

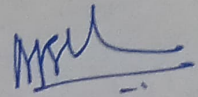

Good

By Organising events

Alumni Meeting Fruitful for Students

College should take Guidance Lectures by Former Students.

Alumni gatherings should be held regularly
