From the Desk of Principal

Dear Students,

At the outset let me Welcome to you all on behalf of Vidya Pratishthan's Vasant Rao Pawar Law College, Baramati. As you know that the first step only leads to the thousands of steps in our life. I congratulate you for choosing your first step to join in career oriented law course which is an exciting as well as solving many legal problems in the society.

Vidya Pratishthan's Vasant Rao Pawar Law College Baramati was started in the year 1999. Presently the law college is running both 3 years LL.B. and 5 years B.A., LL.B. courses and also the diploma courses like DLL. & LW, Cyber Law and DTL. So far 15 batches of LL.B students have passed out from this college and they are immensely helping the society to solve law related problems in different regions.

In fact, teaching of legal education is a blending and mixture of both theory and practice. For achieving this objective and improving the skills of advocacy the college is providing clinical legal education. Apart from this we also encourage our students to participate in Moot court, debate, mock trial and personality development Programmes. We emphasis on curricular, and extra-curricular activities in the college.

I sincerely feel that imparting quality based and standard legal education is essential in every law college but it is lacking in most of the law colleges. We share this concern and our motto is to adopt the appropriate and innovative methods of teaching skills for upholding the quality legal education.

I hope that all the students who have joined in our Vidya Pratishthan's Vasant Rao Pawar Law College will feel most memorable and significant period of their life. I ONCE AGAIN CONGRATULATE and welcome you all to our law college.

Dr. P. Ashokkumar
(Principal)

VISION, MISSION & GOALS:

VISION:

To aid development through quality legal education in rural area.

The College was established in 1999 in predominantly rural area with the object of providing access to quality legal education at an affordable cost and also of serving the society by organizing legal awareness and legal aid programmes in nearby villages. Thereby it was intended to aid development of the region.

MISSION:

1. To develop the competencies of students through a range of curricular, co-curricular, extra-curricular and extension activities.
2. To provide advocacy skills to the students through teaching and motivational approach.
3. To promote the spirit of legal research among the students.

GOALS:

MAHARASHTRA ACT NO. XXXIII OF 1999.

(First published, after having received the assent of the Governor in the "Maharashtra Government Gazette", on the 15 May 1999.)

An Act to prohibit ragging in educational institutions in the State of Maharashtra

WHEREAS it is expedient to enact a special law to prohibit ragging in educational institutions in the State of Maharashtra. It is hereby enacted in the Fiftieth Year of the Republic of India as follows:

(1) Short title and commencement: This Act may be called the Maharashtra Prohibition of Ragging Act, 1999.

It shall come into force on such date as the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

(2) Definitions

1. "Educational institution" means and includes a college, or other institution by whatever name called, carrying on the activity or imparting education therein (either exclusively or among other activities); and includes an orphanage or a boarding home or hostel or a tutorial institution or any other premises attached thereto;

2. "Head of the educational institution" means the Vice-Chancellor of the University, dean of Medical Faculty, Director of the Institution or the Principal, headmaster or the person responsible for the management of the educational institution;

3. "Ragging" means display of disorderly conduct, doing of any act which causes or is likely to cause physical psychological harm or raise apprehension or fear or shame or embarrassment to a student in any educational institution and includes

(i) teasing, abusing, threatening or playing practical jokes on, or causing hurt to, such student; or
(ii) asking a student to do any act or perform something which such student will not, in the ordinary course, willingly, do.

(3) Prohibition of ragging

Ragging within or outside of any educational institution is prohibited.

(4) Penalty for ragging

Whoever directly or indirectly commits, participates in, abets or propagates ragging within or outside any education institution shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years and shall also be liable to a fine which may extend to ten thousand rupees.

(5) Dismissal of student

Any student convicted of an offence under section 4 shall be dismissed from the educational institution and such student shall not be admitted in any other educational institution for a period of five years from the date of order of such dismissal.

(6) Suspension of student

1. Whenever any student or, as the case may be, the parent or guardian, or a teacher of an educational institution complains, in writing, of ragging to the head of the educational institution, the head of that educational institution shall, without prejudice to the foregoing provisions, within seven days of the receipt of the complaint, enquire into the matter mentioned in the complaint and if, prima facie, it is found true, suspend the student who is accused of the offence, and shall, immediately forward the complaint to the police station having jurisdiction over the area in which the educational institution is situated, for further action.

2. Where, on enquiry by the head of the educational institution, it is proved that there is no substance, prima facie, in the complaint received under sub-section (1), he shall intimate the fact, in writing, to the complainant.

3. The decision of the head of the educational institution that the student has indulged in ragging under sub-section (1), shall be final.
